

ADAM SMITH TRICENTENARY EVENTS 2023

KIRKCALDY OLD KIRK TRUST JUNE PROGRAMME

Saturday 3rd June: Fife Strathspey and Reel Society - Fiddlers' Rally, featuring music by contemporaries of Adam Smith – Niel Gow, Robert Burns. 7.15pm Tickets at door.

Monday 5th June : Adam Smith's Baptismal Celebration Event 11am - 12.20pm Look out for the horse & carriage bringing infant Adam to the re-enactment of his baptism 300 years ago this day in the Old Kirk. Hear how he grew up to become famous and how his fame spread to America and over the globe. Listen as his baptism is celebrated in music and poetry of the time. Free event but donations welcome. Refreshments afterwards and opportunities to climb the tower with a guide until 4pm, weather permitting.

Tuesday 6th June: Adam Smith's Kirkcaldy, a guided tour starting at 2pm from the Old Kirk Tower, where he first appears in history. This will end up at the Garden Party to launch Adam Smith's garden opening to the public. Free. Limited places - can be booked in advance at 01592 265499.

Wednesday 7th June: Open Church 11am –4pm with Norman Milne playing the organ from 11am to 1pm. Tower Tours, Stories from Stones tour of the historic graveyard, and Adam Smith's Kirkcaldy tour. Adam Smith Exhibition in church.

Thursday 8th June and Friday 9th June: Academic programme organised by Adam Smith Global Foundation. Old Kirk will run tower tours at lunchtime (12 -2pm). Limited spaces - can be booked in advance as above. Stall in Town Square Marquee. Fri 10- 3pm

Saturday 10th June: Open Church 11am - 4pm with Tower Tours, Stories from Stones tour of the historic graveyard, and Exhibition in Church.

Website: www.kirkcaldyoldkirktrust.org.uk